“There is one thing one has to have: either a soul that is cheerful by nature, or a soul made cheerful by work, love, art, and knowledge.”
Friedrich Nietzsche

Meaning “soul” in Latin, animus is indeed a soulful wine. It reflects the character of a people who have been labouring the steep, craggy hills of Portugal’s Douro River and its tributaries. Table wine has been made here since pre-Roman times. An area now widely acclaimed for port wine production is now returning to producing to premium table wines of distinction. This wine is a true expression of the dry reds of this area

Animus is a blend of Touriaga Nacional, Tinta Roriz and Touriga Franca producing aromas of red fruits and soft aromas that embrace the palate.
