2013 Gavi DOCG

89 points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2014 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
June 2, 2014

Produced from the indigenous Cortese grapes grown near the town of Gavi in Piedmont, this is one of Italy's most expressive white varietal wines.

"Silvery straw color. Aromas and flavors of lemon phosphate, lime peel, and ripe apples on the tree with a crisp, dryish light-to-medium body and a tart nutshell and chalky mineral finish. A nice dry white for shellfish." Tastings.com - June 2, 2014

Enjoy well chilled on its own, with fish, chicken and cold pasta salads.
